

The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 2586

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 23. 1743.

Leghorn, September 7.

Train of Artillery of 24 Pieces, with all its Appurtenances, is arrived here. We conceive, that it is intended for the Use of the Forces of the Grand Duke, which are kept in a continual Readiness to march, tho' with what Design does not as yet appear. A Report is lately spread, that a small Squadron

English Men of War are gone to visit Civita Vecchia, which has occasioned Variety of Conjectures. Count has again inform'd our Regency, that he has absolute Intelligence of a Design form'd by the Spaniards attacking this State; but that he has dispos'd his troops in such a Manner, as to be able to succour us on the first Notice of the Enemy's beginning to move.

Munich, Sept. 13. The Regiment of Lubomirski's Hussars, and that of Festetics's Hussars, pass'd thro' the Neighbourhood Yesterday, in order to join Baron Schenau before Ingoldstadt. They march'd with such diligence, that in three Days they arriv'd here from Ingoldstadt; and it is judg'd, they will reach the Camp before Ingoldstadt the Day after To-morrow. Part of the Infantry which were employ'd in the Blockade of the first mentioned Place, will speedily take the same Route. The Battalion of Keil, which is at present here, will march hence To-morrow; but is to be replaced by the Regiment of Schulembourg, and a Detachment of Hussars. All these Motions are occasion'd by the discovery of some secret Intrigues of M. Seckendorff in Bavaria; of which, tho' People talk much, we know not what to think. Some will have it, that he expects a reinforcement of French Troops, or of Troops in French Uniform; while others assert as positively, that his Scheme is to engage the Inhabitants of Straubingen, and other Towns in the Electorate, to massacre the Austrian Garrison. Last Night the fine College of the Jesuits in this City took Fire, and a Fourth Part of it was burnt down.

Frankfurt, September 22. The Nuncio Doria has had Audience of the Emperor since his Promotion, contrary to all the Forms. We are informed, that on the 18th his Prussian Majesty arriv'd at Anspach, where he was soon after met by Field-Marshal Count Seckendorff; and soon after, several private Conferences with that General. His Excellency is expected here towards the end of the Month, as is also Prince William of Hesse. Some People, and those too of Distinction, fancy they have seen the King of Prussia in the Uniform of a Life Guards; but the Court absolutely disavow it. It is however observ'd, that his Imperial Majesty is much more in his Closet, to which there are two private passages, for admitting, with the utmost Secrecy, such Persons as he inclines to see, without the World's Knowledge. There is now no Talk of the Queen of Hungary's coming to Terms with his Imperial Majesty; on the contrary, it looks as if the War would be speedily rekindled. New Orders have been given, not only for recruiting a Regiment of Horse, rais'd in the Diocese of Liege, for the Service of his Imperial Majesty, but Orders have been given for levying there a Regiment of Foot, consisting of two Battalions.

Worms, Sept. 21. The Army of the Allies continues yet in our Neighbourhood; the Hussars are mighty well satisfied with the Success of their last Expedition against the French. The Partizan Romberg did all that was in his Power to get away from them, but it was to no Purpose. He was taken by an old Hussar, who stript him of his Purse, his Watch, his Snuff-box, and other Things to the Value of 100 Lewis D'Ors. He is very strictly guarded. The Hussars came up with the French upon a full Gallop, and as they did not expect them, but were busy in collecting Forage and Provisions, they fell suddenly into Confusion, and fled into the Vineyards, where they endeavour'd to hide themselves; but the Hussars pursued them thither, and cut most of them to pieces. The Inhabitants of this City saw the Action from the adjacent Hills; it lasted from Noon till about five o'Clock, and they pursued the French to the very Gates of Landau. On their Return, they obliged the Peasants to help them to strip the Dead; and to make them some Amends for their Trouble, they made them Present of all the Linen the poor People had on. After this was over, cover'd as they were with Blood, Sweat, and Tears, they gave the Peasants ready Money for Bread, Mutton, Beef, Wine, Brandy, and other Refreshments; and continued feasting and dancing upon the Field of Battle the best part of the Night.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

S I R,

AS my Absence from the Stage this Season has occasion'd different Reports to my Disadvantage, I think it incumbent on me to let the Publick know (to whom I am alone oblig'd for all the Advantages I have receiv'd in my Profession) the true Reason for my not performing as usual.

It is said, that I have quitted the Stage, intending to Act no more; it is also reported, that my Demands on the Manager are so exorbitant, that it is impossible for him to comply with them.

In answer to these Insinuations, or Assertions, (which I suppose are intended to injure me) they being false; I am oblig'd to say, that I have not a Fortune that can support me independent of the Stage; and so far from making extravagant Demands, that I have not made any. My Reason for not performing, is, That I have a very great Sum due to me from the Manager, for which I have often apply'd to him to no Purpose; therefore I hope, I shall be justified in not entering into fresh Agreements with one, who has broke through his Bonds and Promises of paying me, what is justly my Due.

As to the Sallery I was to have receiv'd last Year, it was no more than he had given to another Performer for Seven Years together; and not as much as I was offer'd by the Manager of Covent-Garden Theatre, by a Person, whose Veracity is to be depended on, which I refus'd; being unwilling to quit the only Stage I have yet appear'd on.

As the good Opinion of every One is not only my Ambition, but of the greatest Consequence to my Interest, I hope my endeavouring to shew I am not in the Wrong, will not be thought improper. I am,

S I R,

Your humble Servant,

CATH. CLIVE.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible

Cure in the Univerſe for the Venereal Disease from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and degenerate Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the ry Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely cur'd in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Juices from being tainted with any remaining Venereal on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet or Weakneſs to ſpread on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Disease attended with Nocturnal Pains, univerſal breaking, and all the other moſt exasperated Symptoms, are overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſpeedily cured than by Salivation, Inunguation, or any other whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without pairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this ſome Thouſands bear of their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſeaſe, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſh'd, without the Knowledge of the moſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury, may by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch likewiſe as doubt they have ſome remaining Effects of former Injuries, may by a few Doſes of it entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicion of that Kind; for it adminiſters no Poſſeſſion, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to the main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all ſcorbutick, ſerophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulneſſes of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this moſt Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary ſeſeacy, one Pot only being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Ramsden's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which, all Perſons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe, may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scoury.
